LONNIE HINTON | THE VIENNA (ILLINOIS) TIMES

KENTUCKY PLANS TO BENEFIT — Gas stations and convenience stores in Kentucky hope to profit of Illinoisians with the recent increases in Illinois fuel and cigarette taxes. One store, located just across the Ohio River from Shawneetown, displayed this sign in front of their store this past weekend. Illinois motor fuel tax doubled, starting on July 1, going from 19¢ a gallon. Illinois cigarettes have also increased by $1 per pack.
